

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Mr. Lad Vance and bride have arrived home.

Mrs. Frederick Rand and Miss Kate Rand are spending the summer at Evanston, Ill.

Gen. M. D. Manson, was in the city yesterday. He is in for a soldier's reunion without reserve.

Mr. W. L. B. Jenny, the celebrated Chicago architect, is visiting J. O. Woodruff with his family.

Marriage licenses were issued yesterday to George Lutz and Mrs. Elizabeth Ferger, Herman Gates and Ella Valle.

Thomas Barry, Western passenger agent of the Baltimore & Ohio, came to this city from Cincinnati yesterday on business.

The Hon. P. B. S. Pinchback, non-senator from Louisiana, is in the city with his family visiting the Hon. J. S. Hinton.

Mr. Frank Smith, wife and child, accompanied by Miss Minnie Hannaman, left for Europe last Friday to be gone until fall.

Messrs. H. R. Gardner, Hanson Gardner and Mr. Cable, of Jonesville, Mich., are in the city looking for a location for a large woolen mill.

John Scullin, of Sedalia, Mo., a prominent railroad contractor of the West, builder of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas road, is registered at the Hotel Bates.

Among the late arrivals at the Bates House are: Geo. Parrott, Dayton; R. T. Gandy, Westfield, Mass.; R. W. Baker, Toledo; S. A. Smith, New Haven, and E. B. Klein, Buffalo, N. Y.

Registered at the Occidental: C. Pomeroy, Chicago; Martin Fregg, Danville, Ind.; W. H. Fountain, New York; R. H. Lewis, Pittsburg; J. E. Scott, Chicago; W. J. Brown, Baltimore, and E. H. Smith, Quincy, Ill.

At the Hotel Bates: D. H. Heywood, Boston; H. S. Julien, Cleveland; G. H. Hulbert, New York; D. H. Wolfe, Philadelphia; B. B. Graham, St. Louis, and Richard F. Payton, Cincinnati.

Miss Minnie Beardsley, one of our favorite city belles, leaves Indianapolis to-day for her new home in Rochester, N. Y. Besides the regrets and best wishes that will follow the charming young lady, Miss Kate Ray goes along as a committee of one on consolation.

Mr. and Mrs. Powell Howland, their daughter, Mrs. Oliver Johnson and their two grand daughters, Miss Hellen Hammond and Miss Lizzie Howland, left yesterday morning on a trip to Saratoga Springs, to visit their relations in Eastern New York and take in a number of places of interest. They will return about September 1st, 1875.