

ABOUT PEOPLE.

A license to marry was yesterday granted to John Lewis and Mat Miles.

Professor M. L. Rinehart, principal of North Indianapolis school, and wife and Mrs. Effie Lofton, went east with the Niagara excursion.

Powell Howland, an account of whose illness has been given in the Sentinel, had another congestive chill Tuesday, and can not live many days.

Mrs. J. C. Fullenwider, the estimable wife of the agent of the St Louis and Iron Mountain road, returned home yesterday from an extended trip in the west.

The governor yesterday commissioned Dr. Charles E. Wright, of this city, surgeon in the Indiana legion, with the rank of lieutenant colonel and assigned him to the governor's staff.

Mr. Webster Dickson, one of Jackson county's young democratic attorneys, of Seymour, was in the city yesterday, on his way to Valparaiso to meet a sister on her way home from college.

Peter H. Clark, a colored socialist of Cincinnati, will address the great labor demonstration in this city on Sunday, August 18, to be held in Moore's grove, at the intersection of Michigan road and Irvington street car line.