This wine decanter was brought from Gilford County North Carolina by My grandmother Laura Ann Worth (Wright) and her parents in a covered Wagon to Indiana. It was filled with wine at the birth of all her children. She is well over 100 yrs old as grandmother died at 91 yrs many years ago. She was married to Thomas Wright-Whright and they had 9 children.